

I favor the NJ Do Not Call provision.

I can put a "No solicitors" sign on my property, why can't I do the same with my telephone? From the telemarketers' view: Why on earth would they want to call someone who has indicated that it's an annoyance and will not result in profit? This is a no-brainer.